

Lodging:

Fayette County has lots of excellent lodging opportunities in fantastic locations. We chose the "Connellsville B&B" for this tour because of it's location to the Great Allegheny Passage Bike Trail, Amtrak Station and Bikes Unlimited which is one block away.

Welcome To Fayette County Pennsylvania!

Fayette County PA is located in Southwestern Pennsylvania in the Laurel Highlands and borders West Virginia and Maryland. The area offers many outdoor activities including biking, hiking, snow skiing, fishing, boating, hunting, kayaking and has some of the best whitewater rafting areas on the east coast. There are miles of State Forests and Parks and the mountains of Fayette County offer the most spectacular fall beauty. Wildlife is abundant in the mountain areas and you won't be suprised to see a deer, bear or wild turkey while driving through. Ohiopyle State Park offers over 28 miles of hiking and biking trails along the Youghioghny River Trail. History buffs will love the area! Fayette County was created in 1783 and named after the Marquis de Lafayette who served in the Continental army under George Washington. Some of the landmarks you won't want to miss are the George C Marshall Memorial Plaza, Fort Necessity, French and Indian War sites, Jumonville, Wharton Furnace, Friendship Hill, Searights Tollhouse and many mansions in Uniontown that were originally built by Coal Barons. In addition, there are two homes designed by renowned architect Frank Lloyd Wright, Fallingwater and Kentuck Knob which are within a short drive of each other.
